

Reader Reviews

I have just finished reading your novel "The Black Stone". . . I thought it was quite a spell-binder, may I say so? I felt drawn into the plot very intensely. It was not very difficult to read for me. I find the plot very interesting. I particularly liked the historical part. I am not so close to the young adults' way of life in the novel but I guess that's the way they think and act nowadays in your country.

Gertrude, a reader from Graz, Austria